TYPO

Press accreditation form

BERLIN 2013 Touch
International Design Talks
16–18 May

We are pleased that you are planning to visit the TYPO Berlin 2013 and report about our conference. This form will enable you to obtain press accreditation for this year's TYPO Berlin.

Please return the completed form (verified by your editor) together with a photocopy of your press ID.

Please note: TYPO Berlin is a trade event for typographers and graphic designers. Press accreditation will not be granted to designers or art directors. As you will appreciate, we can only grant accreditation to a limited number of journalists.
